

CIVIL LIBERTY.

Keynote of the Most Harmonious Political Convention Ever Held in Kentucky.

MANY SOUL-STIRRING SPEECHES MADE

All Aims Subordinated to Solemn Duty of Restoring Right of Suffrage to People of Kentucky.

"LET THE HOLY WAR GO ON."

Ex-Governor Bradley Requested to Allow His Name Presented for Vice-Presidency at National Convention.

DELEGATES CHOSEN ALMOST UNANIMOUSLY.

A magnificent convention of united Republicans, in which was a liberal sprinkling of free and independent Democrats, who have not been able to abide Bryanism and Goebelism, was that which assembled in Louisville at the Auditorium last Thursday. These 2,000 delegates and their guests were of one mind. There was no breath of a scramble or a wrangle. The keynote of civil liberty for the people of Kentucky was to be sounded, which would be the battle cry for all fair and liberty-loving Kentuckians in future campaigns until Goebelism and all political thieving should be wiped out in Kentucky.

"Let the holy warfare go on!" said Gov. Taylor, and the cry was taken up and passed along the line by all participants—leading Republicans and big, brainy, independent Democrats shouted out their endorsement of the sentiment for an unyielding and overpowering battle for civil liberty.

When Gov. Taylor, accompanied by his family, entered the hall the Convention stood up as one man and gave him and them the most hearty and sympathetic reception ever accorded a man in political convention. There was the deepest feeling throughout that body while this demonstration continued for several minutes. Those who were given this reception were the impersonation of the villainous wrongs and persecutions heaped upon the independent and God-fearing mass of the people of Kentucky by the manipulators of the infamous Goebel machine who love office better than justice and liberty.

The scene of Gov. Taylor's reception was repeated a few minutes later when ex-Gov. Bradley entered the hall. There were heart throbs in these demonstrations and the eyes of many a strong man were wet at the thoughts of vile persecution and the loss of liberty.

Gov. W. S. Taylor, ex-Gov. W. O. Bradley, Judge George Denny, Congressman Vincent Boreing, Albert S. White and W. A. Gains were nominated for delegates at large to the National Convention at Philadelphia, June 19. Before the first ballot was half complete a motion was carried unanimously to suspend the rules and elect Taylor and Bradley by acclamation, which was done amidst the wildest applause. Denny and Gains were chosen as the other two delegates, Congressman Boreing withdrawing in order to give one delegate to the colored men.

Capt. H. S. Irwin, Republican nominee for Congress in the Louisville district was made temporary chairman. Senator Deboe, who had withdrawn from the race for delegate at large, was unanimously chosen as permanent chairman of the convention.

Following is the new State Central Committee:

Chairman, Hon. C. M. Barnett; vice-Chairman, Judge J. H. Tinsley; Secretary, R. L. Gwathmey; Treasurer, James F. Buckner; A. T. Wood, Senator Deboe, N. B. Chambers, W. S. Taylor, W. N. Foster, C. O. Reynolds, Jno. Buckingham, Geo. Lieberth, W. J. Wilmore and Judge J. B. Bennett.

Gov. W. S. Taylor Gives an Oration.

Gov. W. S. Taylor, in response to a unanimous call, spoke as follows: "Fellow citizens, I am deeply moved by this demonstration on your part. We have all suffered and toiled together in the cause of human liberty, and to that sacred cause for past, for our children and for our God, I swear eternal allegiance. Liberty can not and shall not die from the fair land of Kentucky as long as manhood lives within its borders. The ballot box, the corner stone of every true Republican institution, shall not be destroyed, and the liberties of the people shall yet survive. Tyrants may triumph for a while; wrongs may be perpetrated some time, but they can not always triumph. Somewhere and in some way godly manhood will assert itself and triumph over wrong, and the banner of the free will be unfurled again in this fair land of ours. The frauds that have taken your liberties from you and overturned the liberties of our people are a stain in the nostrils of decency, and as long as time shall last it will be known of all men that a great wrong against a suffering people has been perpetrated. It is the black spots that will not rub out, and wherever it is read, wherever the truth is known, it will always be said that the will of the people of Kentucky was trampled in the dust. I know it shall not always be so, and why? Because I tell you now the ballot must be free or this republic will die. This Union, this compact of States can not exist many years with a part of them free and a part of them slaves. The constitution of Kentucky in the bill of rights, in the very Ark of the Covenant, guarantees to every Kentuckian that all elections shall be free and equal. That provision of the constitution has been trampled under foot. It has been disregarded, but the men that trampled that part of the constitution under their feet will live to curse the day that they committed the crime. When the States of this Union entered into the covenant that made them a part of this great nation they had a guaranty put into that covenant that every State should have a republican form of government, and I want to say now and here that the nation that will not keep its pledge and give to every State a republican form of government is not worthy of life.

"In all the history of the world men have longed for liberty. They have climbed mountains snow-capped to find liberty, they have plowed the deepest and billowy ocean to find a haven where liberty was. They have gone on the dusty road and marched and tramped, and in the field of battle and in the roar of cannon they have given their lives for liberty. Their bones lie bleaching all over ovation when he spoke, as follows:

"Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen of the Convention:—I cannot help, on this occasion, but think of the difference in the condition of our country today and its condition four years ago. Then its workshops were closed, labor only half rewarded, no market which was worth anything in the way of remuneration for the farmer. Now, when we stand here today and see the greatest prosperity that this nation has ever enjoyed, we have a right to be proud that we are Republicans. We were told in the campaign of 1896 that all sorts of calamities were coming upon the people, and that if we had a war our monetary system would be the destruction of our country; that we have had a war, a glorious war, where our soldiers and sailors have added the very brightest chapters to our history. The arrogant country of Spain, with all of its persecutions, has been humbled in the dust and the American flag today has more respect than it ever enjoyed before. Wherever it waves it represents freedom and prosperity and the noblest and greatest country that God has ever vouchsafed to man. (Applause.) Shall this continue? The American people will soon decide and it will be a decision which will be so perfectly certain and so overwhelming in and said that he was fleeing from the State. A sister died and when he went to her funeral again they said that he was a fugitive from justice.

"Now I say that this scandalizing of a public man in Kentucky, this thing of bringing into these foul prints the name of nearly every leading public man of the State, this attempt to blacken and assassinate human character, is far more contemptible, corrupt and mean and devilish than any murderer or assassin that takes human life. They say that the Republican party has conspired to murder Senator Goebel. I say that is a lie. The Republican party of Kentucky would scorn to steal an office they have not been elected to, and, let me tell you, an assassin who takes life is mean and degraded beyond description, and the assassin of human character is even meaner, but there is another sort of a man that is meaner than both, and that is the man who tramples upon the will of the people of his State in order to steal an office he could not be elected to. They tell you the Republican party is dead."

Confidence in the Supreme Court.

A voice: "A very live corpse." Gov. Bradley: "The Republican party will never die as long as liberty has a votary of freedom of men. It came into existence in the cause of liberty. It has fought the great battles of liberty. It is strong now in the State of Kentucky. There was a time in my young manhood when I first entered politics that we had in this State of ours only 38,000 votes, but now we have polled as many as 277,000, and I have no doubt on God's earth that Gov. Taylor at the last election polled that many or nearly that many votes. The arrangement was made to defraud the people and to corrupt the ballot box, but even with all that they could not beat him, and then, when they could not beat him, they deliberately stole the office. But, my friends, mark my word for it. They won't keep the office they stole. I have no information as to how the Supreme Court will decide this case. That court does not tell what it is going to do. (Applause.) But, my friends, I have confidence in an overwhelming Providence; I have confidence in the right, and I have confidence in the honor, justice, manhood and ability of every judge who sits upon that magnificent bench. If these things can go on in the State, if there is no power in this nation that can stay the hand of the robber, then I think instead of taking up our time to try to do something in the Philippines we had better get back to Kentucky, we had better hire a few missionaries, call them in from foreign lands, and see what we can do here at home. My friends, it may be that Kentucky stands today in shame. It may be today the clouds are dark. It may be that her light is hidden, but as sure as there is a God who reigns over the world, just so sure shall her manacles fall and she stand forth redeemed, regenerated and disenthralled. Well, did Gov. Taylor say: "Let the holy war go on." When you are struggling to maintain your freedom, when you are struggling for liberty, when you are struggling to maintain those things which were bought by the blood of your fathers and, sanctified by the prayers of your mothers, you are indeed engaged in a holy war. Let not a man be found who will tamely or idly surrender his manhood. Let us stand forth for free the sunny South and all over this land that died for liberty. We gave our boys and our citizens to cross the ocean and die for liberty in the far away Philippine Islands, but here in this, your own State, is an island, our own dear old Kentucky home, that needs liberating and needs freedom more than they. (Applause.) And I appeal to the manhood of Kentucky to say whether or not we had better first set our own people free.

"But, my fellow citizens, I have already talked much longer than I had intended. There are others here who have been battling for liberty also, and I want you to hear them. I will close with this pledge to you. This is sacred: this warfare must never stop. Your dear old State lies prostrate, bleeding now, but in God's name her noble form shall be lifted up under that flag. Keep up the holy warfare and never tire. Go to the ballot box, stand by it and watch it. See that every man that is entitled to a vote is allowed to vote. And more, see that the ballot is counted as cast. It does look like a gloomy and stubborn battle, but God knows the right can win if I cannot tell you how. In fact, it must win, but I want to ask you one thing: I want you to swear in your hearts that this warfare shall never end until it is won.

Ex-Gov. Bradley's Strong Speech. Ex-Gov. Bradley was given an number as to surprise us all. The Republican administration will be upheld, and the Republican candidate for President will be elected and prosperity will continue in the future as we have in the past.

But, my friends, not only have the Republicans of this Nation—those who are in office—given you a magnificent administration, but those whom you selected more than four years ago to take charge of your State affairs have given you an administration of which you may well be proud. Gov. Taylor has told you something in regard to the condition of Kentucky affairs.

"I stand here today to denounce in unmeasured terms the assassin who shot down Senator Goebel. Whoever he may be, he deserves condign punishment for a deed that can have neither palliation nor excuse; but, mean as he is, he is not one tenth as mean as the scoundrels who, through the newspapers, have undertaken to assassinate the character of the manhood of Kentucky. Let the guilty man be punished, but in God's name, let not the innocent suffer. A public press that has hounded your Governor with a venom and spleen that would do credit to a rattlesnake, and, not content with that, has even dragged the name of his wife into the public press. (Hisses and cries of 'Shame!') And when he was called to the grave of his brother or still this malice pursued him

CONFEDERATE RE-UNION.

Arrangements Are Being Made on Grand Scale at Louisville.

Twenty-Five Thousand Veterans and as Many Visitors Are Expected.

At the Confederate Re-union Hall, Louisville, Ky., one of the most interesting sights about the place, will be the big 32-pounder now lying at Fort Pillow, where it was used as a siege piece during the war. The Cincinnati & Memphis Packet Company has volunteered to bring up the big gun free of charge, and the only expense then will be that of mounting it on a pedestal. The old gun may figure in the grand parade, and will be the biggest piece of ordnance that the ordinary peaceable citizens of Louisville have ever seen, as it is about three and a half feet in thickness through the breach. She has never smelt smoke in her nostrils since the war, and will most likely have the honor of firing away in harmless salutes of welcome to her old friends.

The ground on which the Confederate Re-union Hall at Louisville stands is high and fronts on the Ohio river, where it is one mile wide. The space is 300x400 feet, and is about twelve feet above the level of the street at both entrances. It has already been leveled and work on the tarring begun. God is being placed also, and when the hall is finished the outlying ground will be beautified with flower plots and shrubbery.

At a recent meeting of the Confederate Re-union Committee great gratification was expressed at the cordial co-operation given the Union soldiers of the city and State in caring for the great gathering in Louisville, May 30, 31, June 1, 2, 3. One important committee is headed by a leading Union soldier, and on various other committees there are about fifty more.

One of the delightful features of the Confederate Re-union, in Louisville May 30, June 1, will be the grand reception and ball to be given in honor of the veterans and sponsors in the Re-union Building now being erected. The floor will be arranged to accommodate 4,000 dancers, while the galleries will seat 6,000 spectators. The ball, which will probably occur June 1, will be one of the most brilliant affairs, assembling as it will, the handsomest women in the South. Twenty bands and orchestras will play while the guests trip the light fantastic.

Major Charles C. Ivey, of Washington, D. C., formerly of the Orphan Brigade, writes that the Confederate Veteran Association of Washington, of which General Joseph Wheeler and eleven other Confederate generals are members, will come on a special train to attend the Re-union at Louisville, May 30, 31, June 1, 2, 3.

Optical Specialist.

Dr. L. Kennedy, the optical specialist, of Morganfield, Ky., will make his second visit to Earlinton on the 22nd of May and remain one week at the Denton Hotel. Those who are suffering with defective vision should call on the doctor while he is in the city. Examination free.

Elder J. F. Story, S. L. Todd and others of the Grapevine country, attended services at the Christian church Sunday night.

Welterman or Magnetic Healing cures a number of diseases without drugs. Call at B. B. Clinton's grocery, Madisonville, and see Prof. A. L. Rogers, graduate of the Welterman Institute, and who has had wonderful success healing.

LOCOMOTIVE BLASTS.

Twenty-two of the largest locomotives ever brought into Chicago are being put into service by the Rock Island road. These new locomotives are to be used in the fast passenger and freight service between Chicago, Kansas City and Omaha, and are constructed for both speed and power. It is estimated that they will be able to easily pull a train of from 12 to 14 heavy Pullman sleepers, at an average speed of 50 miles an hour. These locomotives weigh about 200,000 pounds and are of the compound ten wheel type. The drive wheels measure 78 inches over tires. They have high pressure cylinders of 15-1/2 by 28 inches, and low pressure cylinders 28 by 28 inches. From the pilot to the rear draw-bar it measures 64 feet. The tender carries 5,500 gallons of water and 10 tons of coal. It becomes necessary to use these large locomotives on account of the heavy trains being hauled. The locomotives are of late pattern and are equipped with all the modern safety appliances, including electric headlights which will plainly reveal an object a mile ahead of the train.

Mike Donohue complies with the Rock Island order. A good story is going the rounds in railroad circles, being the result of an order issued by the Rock Island railway not long since requiring all its section foremen to report to an on-call on a certain day and have their eyes examined. One afternoon after those present had undergone the examination and the eye doctor was about to close up for the evening, a messenger boy rushed in with a package nearly the size of a man, and which proved to be a glass eye. The following and evidently hurriedly scribbled note was attached:

TOPEKA, KAN.
Oye Inspector:
Dear Sir—Have me look over yesterday at mine. I am word to come down and have me look over for color blindness as ye call it. I had forty-five ties and ten cables to put down beyond the sand cut, an as Jerry Sullivan and Donahue Coughlin have been indisposed since the wak that was holded over the dead corpus of Danny doherty, hands wor too short to spare 'em. 'Twas lucky that the right eye that was first in me hed wern'ocked out wid a pigk, and me glass oye that is a perfect figger up the oye that was not put out is int to you for examination. I end the right eye that was better than oye in me hed, and if she is culler blind I'll get me one what int.

Yours truly,
Mike Donohue.

The New York Central Railroad and its employees have reached a satisfactory understanding, and the walking delegate and the Democratic politicians are correspondingly sad.

There were nearly 7,000,000 more telegraph messages sent over United States wires in 1920 than in 1919. This indicates better business conditions last year because people had business to do and could handle the extra pay telegraph tolls than two-cent postage.

More than $4,000,000 worth of American railway engines have been exported in the nine months ending with March, 1920, as compared with less than $1,000,000 worth in the corresponding months ending with March, 1919, and $2,800,000 worth in the corresponding months of 1918.

One evidence of Republican prosperity is shown by the following business, which give the partial amount of money to be expended on railroad improvements and extensions this year: Baltimore & Ohio, $25,000,000; Atchafalaya, $20,000,000; Monon, $1,000,000; Chicago & Alton, $2,000,000; Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific, $2,000,000; Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, $2,000,000; Illinois Central, $3,000,000; Chicago & Eastern Illinois, $2,500,000; Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, $6,000,000.

Supervisors Burns and Davis have loaded and distributed several thousand ties the past week, over 4,000 loaded in one day. The ties are for the south end, south of Hopkinsville.

Everything indicates that a new depot for Earlington is being selected, and a location for the old building which will be moved is now being selected.

The British, it is claimed, captured from the Boers at one time this week, twenty-seven locomotives and engines, which the Boers had known the whole of South Africa had in use.

The street railway employees of St. Louis don't seem to be making much headway, securing the points asked for. In fact they were the case several years ago when the railroad employees pursued the same tactics with similar results and public sentiment and as a natural consequence the railroad men were working to gain a case at the expense of the traveling public. Last indignation is that the railroad men are the ones that will be meted out to them.

Men and boys who make jumping on and off trains a practice had better beware of one eye open. The railroad company intend making an effort to break it up, and the law breakers will from now on probably have to answer in court.

Ed Robinson is now a division superintendent on a railroad in the northwest. So it can be seen that one of the Earlington boys is fast building up a reputation as a practical railroad.

Supervisor James Sullivan writes relatives here that the company for which he works will soon build him a new house for the use of himself and family at a point near Atlanta, Georgia. He is well pleased with his new location and job.

DOWN IN THE MINES.

The colored miners who are members of the U. B. F. organization turned out in parade Sunday. Fest days come so seldom that they now have to take advantage of the Sabbath as a day for recreation.

A visit to Madisonville will satisfy anyone of an inquisitive disposition who are of the mind idlers there and who are of the mind idlers there and who are of the mind idlers there.

Albert Robinson, one of the old reliable miners at No. 11 mine met with a severe accident last week and breaking three ribs and otherwise bruising him. At this writing while suffering considerable pain, he is improving.

Foreman Tomblis, of the Barney mine, was called to Madisonville last week to serve on the petit jury, and while in the city availed himself of the opportunity to take a few more lessons in hypnotism under the teaching of Prof. Hart.

It is generally admitted that no mine in the county, and we could truthfully say the state, is operated with more care than those under the control of the St. Bernard Company.

Their rules are strict and men of sound judgment and experience are in charge to see that same are enforced. Yet with all the precautions taken an occasional accident occurs, as was the case one day last week when four men were at work in a room in the Arnold Mine and one of them, Denny Davis, was struck down by falling slate, and friends fear he is fatally injured.

Several ribs were broken, besides a fracture of the spine. Those in charge of the work there say the accident was not due to carelessness on the part of any person, but that it was one of those underlings of fate alone against which miners seldom ever guard. At this writing Dr. Chatten, who has charge of the injured man sees but little hope for recovery.

The purchase of the Gallego track coal and timber land in West Virginia, situated in Fayette, Raleigh and Kanawha counties has been completed by final payment. The property consists of 8,500 acres and the purchase price was $300,000.

The development of the land will commence at once. A railroad, the Kanawha & Pocahontas, is being built and will tap this new coal field.

The Pitkin Dispatch says there is some danger of trouble among the miners at the Arnold mines near Webster, Pa. on the Monongahela river. Five coach loads of foreigners were taken there Tuesday night, and it is being held to await the result of the conference between a committee of the mine workers and operators. The imported miners are taken into the district Tuesday night were secured at Ellis Island as they landed from the ships. There were over 200 in the lot, and it is said that hundreds more can be secured if wanted.

A new Kentucky corporation is the Kanawha Coal Co., with capital stock of $12,000. The incorporators are: W. G. Freeman, B. Moore and B. H. Hutchcraft, of Harboursville, who have purchased from John H. Black, four hundred acres of coal land, lying along the Louisville & Nashville Railroad. The company is preparing to operate the mines at once.

The Pittsburgh Leader has this to say about mine dogs: "A picturesque and interesting sight is presented at the coal mine of William Rook, in Crafon borough. The coal cars are all moved by dogs, the only mine in Allegheny county. It is said that the little animals are used. Passengers on the Carnegie and Crafon branch of the West end traction system are treated to this sight as the mine is only a few yards away from the tracks. Old inhabitants recall with an infection somewhat mournful that this is the only instance existing of the old order of coal mining when the pits around the mine were filled with dogs and cats. The pit dog is almost a relic of the old days.

The pit dog is almost a relic of the old days.

"Ever since the Rock mine was opened two years ago, a picturesque and interesting sight is presented at the coal mine of William Rook, in Crafon borough. The coal cars are all moved by dogs, the only mine in Allegheny county. It is said that the little animals are used. Passengers on the Carnegie and Crafon branch of the West end traction system are treated to this sight as the mine is only a few yards away from the tracks. Old inhabitants recall with an infection somewhat mournful that this is the only instance existing of the old order of coal mining when the pits around the mine were filled with dogs and cats. pair, but a mule will easily pull eight times this much. The four dogs that haul the black diamonds out of the mine belong to James and Ab Shafer. These men are miners and work in the Rock mine."

"The whipling, by their parents, of the breaker boys at Nanticoke, Pa., going on strike was no doubt thought best by those fathers, but we doubt the wisdom of their course. There was perhaps a degree of youthful folly connected with the action of the boys, but to whip them into submitting to terms of a coal corporation is certainly settling a questionable precedent. It would no doubt have proven of more profitable benefit to the breaker boys if they had been more humane, had the parents employed this time in an endeavor to arrange conditions so as to enable them to place their boys in a school."

The above from the United Mine Workers' Journal shows how ready the United Mine Workers are to attack a parent for performing his duty when those duties conflict with the evil lessons taught those who become members of that order. It is certainly more honorable to chastise a child for going astray than to force him to lead them in the wrong path. The mistake the parents made was their failure to punish the children when they became members of an organization that would prove a disgrace.

BECKHAM'S PREST.

Decision of the United States Supreme Court in the Kentucky Governorship Case.

DISMISSED FOR WANT OF JURISDICTION.

The Court Says There is No Appeal From the Assembly's Decision Except to the Tribunal of the People, Which, the Court Said, was Always in Session.

Washington, May 22.—The Kentucky governorship case was decided by the United States supreme court in the interest of Beckham, affirming the decision of the Kentucky court of appeals.

The opinion was handed down by Chief Justice Fuller and the case was dismissed for want of jurisdiction, with the determination of cases of this character, contests for state offices, must necessarily be settled by the political branch of the government.

"So that, while we may inquire whether the citizen's land, or his right to it, has been taken from him by the legislative, executive or judicial authorities of his state without due process of law, we may not inquire whether the legislative or judicial authorities of a state have, without due process of law, ousted a citizen of his office, or of his right to it. The office of a citizen is not a property right, and it cannot be diminished during such term, and put into his place by whom the people have said should not exercise the authority, pertaining to that high position. When the fourteenth amendment forbids any state from depriving any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law, it has supposed that the purpose was to guard citizens against being deprived of any right in violation of the fundamental guarantees that liberty in due process of law."

Gov. Taylor's Last Order.
Louisville, Ky., May 21.—Gov. Taylor, late in the afternoon, issued the following order:
To Gen. D. R. Collier, Frankfort, Ky.: The supreme court of the United States having decided in favor of Mr. Beckham, nothing remains to be done except to dismiss the militia and surrender your office to your successor, appointed by Mr. Beckham. You are, therefore, directed to at once dismiss the militia and to surrender your office to your successor as soon as the mandate of the supreme court is filed, or sooner, if you wish. I am, Sir, very respectfully,
Yours, W. S. TAYLOR.

NO ANXIOUS FOR PEACE.

President Kruger says to Have Asked Lord Salisbury for Terms of Peace.

London, May 21, 3:10 a. m.—Displayed in the most conspicuous style in the Daily Express is the dominant war news of the morning:
"We have the best reason for stating that in the last 24 hours a telegram has been received at the foreign office addressed personally to the prime minister from President Kruger asking terms of peace."

"The exact terms of the message cannot be stated, but we believe it is couched in an exceedingly humble and conciliatory manner."
It is inconceivable, if course, that Lord Salisbury has sent any reply except the one that stands ready on the lip of every Briton—unconditional surrender.

The boldest rejoinders over the news from Mafeking have become riots in parts of London, Aberdeen and Belfast, and elsewhere in the United Kingdom.

Special prayers of thanksgiving were offered, yesterday, in the churches of the United Kingdom. The Lord Bishop of London, Dr. Manders Creighton, who preached before the queen at Windsor, alluded to the relief of Mafeking, and clergymen generally found in the event their tonic for the day.

SAMUEL MOSES IN CUSTODY.
The Murderer of Wife and Children Near Treason, Ill., Caught in Utah.

Salt Lake, Utah, May 20.—The Desert News says that the man who attempted to commit suicide by jumping from the Jordan river and was rescued by the police, is Samuel Moses, who murdered his wife and three children at the home of three miles from Treason, Ill., on Sunday evening.

Moses has a full confession to a desert News reporter.

The Work of Lightning.
New York, May 21.—Lightning wrecked the tower of the Sandy Hook (N. J.) main light, one of the oldest lighthouses in this country, Monday, as fire to the alighthouse near by, on the shore of the Atlantic, and churning along the cables to the Hook took down the tower. It was all done in an instant.

Invitation to the President.
Washington, May 23.—Gen. Albert D. Shaw, commander-in-chief of the U. S. A. R., called on the president, Monday, and invited him and Mrs. McKinley to attend the national encampment at Chicago, August 27.

This section of the state, which occurred to prevent he would certainly be present.

Naught But Imperial Neutrality.
Washington, May 21.—The United States will not interfere in the struggle in South Africa. Secretary May made this frank announcement to the Boer envoys, whom he received, informally, by appointment at the state department, Monday. This country can only observe impartial neutrality.

Death of a Multi-Millionaire.
Madison, N. J., May 23.—Frederick A. Bell, of this place, the richest man in the country, died at his home, Monday, from shock resulting from a fall four years ago from Buffalo.

Singular, But Exact.
London, May 22.—A singular feature of the Mafeking relief movement was the frankness of Lord Roberts in announcing, long in advance, the date when Mafeking would be relieved. He kept his promise, but concealed his method of accomplishing it in confounding and puzzling details.

FIFTY-SIXTH CONGRESS.

On the agenda, on the 17th, discussion on the administration of affairs in Cuba. The Senate of the United States, on the 17th, passed a bill to incorporate the American National Bank. The bill was taken up, but no progress was made owing to the inability of the report on the District of Columbia appropriation was returned, after extended debate.

In the senate, on the 17th, the post of despatch appropriation bill being under consideration, the senate adjourned. An amendment to reduce the amount to be paid the railroads for transportation of mail matter was rejected. It is to be in the house a special river and harbor bill, carrying a survey and emergency work, was passed. The remainder of the session was devoted to the Alaskan coal bill, four of the 61 bills of the measure were disposed of.

In the senate, on the 18th, nearly the entire day appropriation bill, the first of the session, was taken up. Mr. Morgan introduced a resolution calling for the release of the Boer prisoners, and Mr. Co., and, in a speech, several times interrupted by Mr. Morgan, he urged the release of the Boer prisoners. Mr. Co. (Tex.) then proposed to release the Boer prisoners, and Mr. Morgan, in a speech, several times interrupted by Mr. Co., he urged the release of the Boer prisoners. Mr. Co. ## BOREAS ENDED LAST

The Methodist Episcopal General Conference, at Chicago, Elects Two Bishops.

CHOICE ON THE SEVENTEENTH BALLOT.

Rev. Dr. John W. Hamilton, Secretary of the Freedman's Aid and Northern Education Society, and Rev. Dr. David H. Moore, Editor of the Western Christian Advocate, Chosen.

Chicago, May 23.—Belief that the day's balloting would end the long-drawn-out episcopate contest attracted a large audience to the meeting of the general conference, held at every seat in the Auditorium being occupied for order. After devotional exercises, conducted by Rev. W. F. Oldham, of Ohio, and the reading of the Journal, the result of the sixteenth ballot, taken Monday, was announced as follows: D. H. Moore, 498; J. W. Hamilton, 411; J. R. Day, 193; H. Spellmeyer, 90; J. F. Berry, 78; T. B. Neely, 41; P. F. Berry, 22. Necessary to choose 438. At 9:30 a. m. the seventeenth ballot was taken, with prospects favorable for a result.

Consideration of changes in the organic law of the church, interrupted several days ago by the debate over the pastorate time limit, was then resumed. Various changes recommended by the committee on revision were adopted, with little debate, until Dr. Buckley reported that the committee was unable to agree upon any recommendation as to sections 1 and 3, article 1. The committee on the question of admitting women to annual conferences, but recessed out of debate.

During recess rumors were current that an election had been reached, and at the conclusion of the recess the seventeenth ballot was read. "Dr. D. H. Moore received 498 votes," reported the secretary, Bishop Warren, and great applause ensued. "Dr. J. W. Hamilton received 411 votes," reported the secretary, and again the hall rang with applause.

Bishop-elect Hamilton and Moore were escorted to the platform and amid applause and the waving of handkerchiefs were introduced to the general conference. The seventeenth and final ballot was as follows: D. H. Moore, 498; J. W. Hamilton, 411; J. R. Day, 193; H. Spellmeyer, 90; J. F. Berry, 78; T. B. Neely, 41; P. F. Berry, 22. Necessary to choose 438.

Discussion of organic law was then again taken up. The conference voted to admit women to annual conferences, but recessed out of debate. The conference voted to admit women to annual conferences, but recessed out of debate.

AMBUSHED BY THE BOERS.
Col. Bethune, with a Small Command, Ambushed Near Vryheid.

London, May 23, 1:37 p. m.—It is officially announced that Col. Bethune has reported that, while marching in the direction of Newcastle, Natal, Monday, he was ambushed by a party of Boers six miles west of Vryheid, in the Transvaal, and that very few of his force escaped. His casualties numbered 36 men.

NORTH OF VRYAL RIVER.
British Capture Twenty-Seven Free State and Transvaal Locomotives.

Cape Town, May 21.—British troops have arrived at Vereeniging (in the Transvaal, north of the Vaal River). The bridge across the Vaal was destroyed last night. Twenty-seven Free State and Transvaal locomotives were captured.

WHY THEY WANTED MAFKING.
A Convenient Point From Which to Make a Raid on Johannesburg.

New York, May 23.—A dispatch to the Herald from London says: One reason which made the Boers so anxious to capture Mafeking was that they always regarded it as a convenient point from which a raid could easily be made on Johannesburg. It seems likely that they will now have full justification for their anxiety, for Lord Roberts, who apparently revels in broadening his campaign lines, evidently plans to take advantage of the position which Mafeking occupies and visit it in force. He is now moving his left wing northward.

THEY SAW THE PRESIDENT.
The Boer Envoys Called at the White House and Told Their Reports to the President.

Washington, May 23.—Messrs. Fiechter, Wessels and Wessels, the three Boer envoys who are now in this country, visited the White House at 10 a. m., according to previous arrangement, to pay their respects to the president. No official status was given the envoys, and they presented no credentials.

The envoys were received in the blue parlor, no one being present but themselves, the president and Secretary Cortelyou. After the first conversation touched upon a variety of subjects.

To Observe the Eclipse.
Madrid, May 23.—Many scientists are arriving to observe the eclipse. A party of English astronomers has arrived from St. Paul, Province of Alicante, as an observation point.

THURSDAY, MAY 24, 1900.

Will not the Democrats put in their platform a plank of condolence with the Sultan of Turkey? He, like Aguinaldo, is not on the best of terms with Uncle Sam and needs sympathy.

In 1899 the western farmers got $3.20 per hundred pounds from the packers for beef. In 1898 the price was $4.80. The farmers got the increase and are convinced that the Republican administration and the gold standard have not worked any injury on their bank accounts.

There were only 708 trade failures in this country last month. Look at the comparison with the figures for the Democratic years 1896 and 1898:

Year	Number	Liabilities
1896	1,085	$18,068,704
1898	1,050	14,909,774
1900	708	7,214,787

Two people registered the figures at the last election thus: "Taylor, 198,714; Goebel, 191,831." These figures were put to record by the Goebel state election board and have not been changed. Do the people of Kentucky propose to govern the state or will they permit a minority with a machine to disfranchise them?

Courtesy Judge Wyatt, at Barbourville, has defeated the designs of the $100,000 Goebel conspiracy on the life of one of the men who was indicted by that one-man jury at Frankfort. Judge Wyatt recognized Gov. Taylor's pardon and upon habeas corpus proceedings released from custody John L. Powers, brother of Secretary of State Caleb Powers, now so long in jail at Frankfort.

IMPEACHMENT proceedings were instituted against General John B. Castleman before the board of Aldermen of the city of Louisville Tuesday night to remove him from the office of President of the Park Board of that city. Gen. Castleman is Beckham's Adjutant General and can not lawfully hold the two offices. He has failed to resign from the Presidency of the Park Board, which position pays $2,500 a year.

The Courier-Journal published a story Monday claiming that the platform adopted by the Republican State convention last Thursday was written by Gen. Simon Bolivar Buckner, Gen. Basil W. Duke and John Young Brown, in conference with a few leading Republicans. These war horses of the old Democracy say the Courier-Journal has falsified, but that has grown to be such an old story that it does not attract much attention.

This following extract from an Indianapolis news dispatch reporting an interview with Governor Taylor throws further light on the methods of the Franklin county courts and grand jury:

"Governor Taylor firmly believes that a regular conspiracy now exists in Kentucky against him and his friends. He and his attorney went to the clerk of the court and demanded to see the record of the grand jury to see if he had been indicted. The clerk refused to show the records and said if he did he would have to go to jail for doing so."

Gov. Mount, of Indiana, refused to recognize Beckham's requisition for the arrest and return to Kentucky of ex-Secretary of State Charles E. Finley upon the ground "that his action in declining to return Charles Finley to Kentucky was based on his deliberate conviction that, owing to the inflamed state of public opinion in that State, especially among the professional politicians, who are vehemently threatening vengeance, a tragedy would have swiftly followed, with Finley the victim. He would have been hanged like a pig to the pole."

The Bee wishes to call the attention of Earlington parents and authorities to the fact that the Curfew law is being disregarded by many children under the age of fifteen every evening. The city law provides that "it shall be unlawful for all children of fifteen years and under to be found on the streets of the city after 8 o'clock, unless with a proper escort twenty-one years of age or over, or with the written consent of their parents, or on an errand of vital importance."

This is a good and a reasonable law and may be made a valuable aid to parents in the management of their children. The public streets, even in a moral, sober town like Earlington, are a nursery of evil to the young child who is permitted to run at night unrestrained. And while the law is the law the parents and authorities should co-operate in enforcement.

In an interview at Indianapolis Gov. Taylor said Tuesday that he fears he is physically unable to make a canvass for reelection if he should accept the nomination. That the nomination is his by acclamation if he will accept it all have been agreed and the temper and demonstration of the State Republican Convention last Thursday settled all doubt upon this point. If any existed. The whole party has indeed insisted that Gov. Taylor lead the fight at the polls against this year. But there is a limit to human endurance and Gov. Taylor has stood enough persecution up to this time to kill a strong man. His friends realize that he has suffered greatly and it is perhaps but natural that he should shrink from further exposing himself to the outrageous attacks that are constantly being made upon him by his bitter political enemies.

Gov. Taylor has not decided yet. He says: "I cannot say that I will or will not be a candidate for Governor of Kentucky this fall. I can only await developments."

Whatever may be done, whoever may be the candidate opposing the Goebel forces and their stealing machine, all Kentuckians who believe in fair play, in a free ballot and a fair count, must keep their minds firm upon the one important point and fix their determination to see to it personally that a fair election is held in November at their own voting places.

This will insure the defeat of the party of force and fraud. The people must not give up the fight for civil liberty. The case is now up to the court of last resort—the people, and the people must be free.

Letter from Manila.

PASIG CITY P. I., April 14, 1900.—As I lived in Earlington about five or six years, and was a constant reader of your paper, I write you a few items from the far Philippine Islands. I know the people of your little city would like to know of my whereabouts. I worked for the L. & N., also the St. Bernard Coal Co.

There is little fighting being done in the northern part of Luzon Island, but in the south where the Filipinos are all gathered our soldiers are after them good and hot. The rebels expect to make their stand there, and I think this war will be over before the rainy season sets in and we will not have any trouble with these people hereafter. We want to get to the front but I am

BLUES

Ever have them? Then we can't tell you anything about them. You know how dark everything looks and how you are about ready to give up. Somehow, you can't throw off the terrible depression. Are things really so blue? Isn't your nerves, after all? That's where the trouble lies. Your nerves are being poisoned from the impurities in your blood.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

purifies the blood and gives power and stability to the nerves. It makes health and strength, activity and cheerfulness. This is what "Ayer's" will do for you. It's the oldest Sarsaparilla in the land, the kind that was old before other Sarsaparillas were known. This also accounts for the saying, "One bottle of Ayer's is worth three bottles of the ordinary kind."

Write the Doctor. If you have any complaint whatever and desire the best medical advice you can possibly receive, write the doctor freely. His name and address are on the wrapper of each bottle.
Dr. J. C. Ayer, Lowell, Mass.

afraid we will not, as our colonel is on General Otis' staff.

There are many different kinds of people on this island, but the Chinese seem to be the best workmen among them, excepting, of course, the Americans.

We have but little drill and few scouting expeditions on which occasions we find nothing to shoot at.

You would laugh if you were to see my home. It is a bamboo hut with a thatched roof and sheets of bullet-perforated corrugated steel for the sides.

Regards to all from a soldier in the Philippine Islands.

Nervous Prostration. I had nervous trouble for years; which at times completely prostrated me and made life not worth living. I tried many physicians and no end of nerve and other remedies without relief. Mr. M. J. Crews, merchant, Moline, Iowa, persuaded me to try Morley's Sarsaparilla and from the very first bottle went to the right spot. For I felt a complete change and now, after using six bottles, I am perfectly well.

Hello, Earlington.

We carry SHOES, the names of which are household words. We carry them on a variety of lasts, and that is what we attribute our great success in the shoe business to.

We have been talking to you relative to covering your floor for you, and we know you are delighted with our "new thing" in marring. Now we want to say something to you about covering your feet. You want Shoes—you want nice Shoes—all nice people do. You not only want nice looking Shoes, but you are equally as anxious to have Shoes that fit. Fit is our hobby. If your Shoe fits perfectly your mind is at ease; you are delighted; you can concentrate your thoughts; you are not screwing and twisting, standing first on the right and then the left foot, kicking the toe against this box or post, or just any old thing that comes in your way, but you are comfortable. That is a great word. You can't fit a Foot with Shoe made on an A last, and vice versa. We carry Lace Boots and Oxfords made on B, C, D and E Lasts. We ask you to call on us for your next pair, won't you? We sell Custom Oxfords from $1.50 up. You must see our $1.25, $2.00, $2.50 and $3.00 Goods. It is a pleasure to wear our Shoes. We? Better. We sell good fitting Shoes and our guarantee makes you perfectly safe.

ATTITUDE OF COMRADES.

The Statue of Gen. Grant, Presented by the G. A. R. to the Nation, Unveiled at Washington.

IT STANDS IN THE CAPITOL ROTUNDA.

Miss Sartoris, a Granddaughter of the General, Pulled the Unveiling Cord, While Her Mother, Grandmother, with Others Looked Proudly On.

Washington, May 20.—The statue of Gen. Grant, presented by the G. A. R. to the nation, was unveiled in the great rotunda of the capitol, and elaborate ceremonies commemorative of the event were held. A number of representatives in the presence of a vast concourse of people who included the widow, daughter and descendants of the hero of Appomattox, hundreds of his comrades in arms, the officers and committee of the G. A. R. and many persons distinguished in military, political and social circles.

A Tribute of Love.
The statue of the pre-eminent chief of the Union forces in the civil war represents the contributions of thousands of his comrades of the G. A. R., some of whom were allowed to subscribe more than 15 cents, and the result of a movement started shortly after Gen. Grant's death at Mount McGregor, in July, 1885.

In Glorious Company.
Grant's statue was unveiled in the rotunda as befitting the status of one whose valiant service was for the whole nation. There it will remain with the statues of Jefferson, Hamilton and Lincoln, which also are in the rotunda, as an example and an inspiration to future generations. The hero of Appomattox stands in the center of the rotunda flanked on either side by the famous paintings of the "Surrender of Cornwallis" and the "Surrender of Burgoyne."

There a Quiet Affair.
The unveiling took place shortly before noon in the presence of Mrs. Grant, Mrs. Sartoris, Miss Sartoris, the officers of the G. A. R., Speaker Henderson and Senator Frye, president pro tem of the senate.

The fact of the unveiling was kept secret, and only a few outsiders witnessed it. There were no ceremonies. Miss Sartoris, attired in white, drew the laurel that uncovered the statue. Mrs. Grant inspected it officially and smiled her approval. The party then retired to the hall of the house where the ceremonies occurred.

Agitated Issues a Nuisance.
Manila, May 20.—A proclamation purporting to have been issued by Aguinaldo, and dated May 1, from Pulo Island, east of Luzon, is circulating in Manila. It says that the president appointed by President McKinley was appointed without the authorization of congress, and that, hence, it can not treat officially.

'Twill Be a Regal Wedding.
New York, May 20.—It is now announced that Senator Clark will give his daughter, Miss Katherine Clark, jewels valued at $85,000, upon the occasion of her marriage to Dr. Lewis Rutherford Morris. Six thousand wedding invitations will be issued, and it is said that the total cost of the wedding will be at least $125,000.

Handy Work on Convention Hall.
Kansas City, Mo., May 21.—Several crews of artisans worked all day Sunday on Convention hall. The fourth set of trusses for the roof were partially put in place, while contractors in charge of the excavation and the concrete and masonry work supervised the construction along those lines.

Amateurs Hunted With Heavy Loss.
Manila, May 21.—Five hundred irregulars, half of whom were armed with rifles, ambushed 30 scouts of the Fourth volunteer infantry in the little near Agunon in the northern part of Mindanao. The Americans routed the natives, killing 51. The American casualties were two killed and three wounded.

A Congressional Investigation.
Washington, May 20.—Congress will investigate affairs in Cuba. The president favors this strongly. He has communicated his wishes to leading republicans and representatives. There is a general agreement that the recent developments call for a thorough overhauling and ventilation.

Brewers Deny the City Ordinance.
Chicago, May 20.—The city of Chicago to brewers have denied the city ordinance requiring them to pay a $500 license fee for the first of May each year. Five of them have complied, and not only refuse to pay the license, but have decided to test the validity of the ordinance in the courts.

Fatal Accident in Mexico.
Chicago, May 20.—A special to the Record from Guadalajara, Mex., says: A work train on the Guadalajara branch of the Mexican Central road ran into an obstruction, wrecking the engine and a number of cars. The American engineer and ten Mexican laborers were killed.

The Administration's Attitude.
New York, May 20.—The general conclusion was reached at the cabinet meeting, Friday, according to the Washington correspondent of the New York Times, that the administration is against intervention in Africa, unless mediation should be requested by both sides.

Question Answered.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for indigestion or biliousness. Doctors never heard of Appendicitis. Nervous Prostration or Heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stay fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You can get a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. For sale by St. Bernard Drug Store.

The baggage coach of passenger train No. 92 was derailed Saturday night. Fortunately no one was hurt. The wrecker was called and the track was cleared as quickly as possible. Traffic was delayed for a few hours.

In Constipation Herbine affords a natural, healthful remedy, acting promptly. A few small doses usually are found to regulate the excretory functions that they are able to operate without any ill whatever. Price 50 cents at St. Bernard Drugstore.

ST. JOHN'S DAY

Will Be Celebrated By the Earlington Masons at Lakeide Park.

A MAMMOTH PICNIC TO BE GIVEN HERE.

Preliminary announcement has already been made in THE BEE of the proposed Masonic picnic to be given at Lakeide Park June 23. In this year falls on Sunday. Leading members of all lodges in Hopkins, Webster and Muhlenberg counties have had the picnic brought directly to their notice and invitations will be extended all these lodges to attend this celebration which Earlington Masons will make a memorable occasion.

The local lodge is growing rapidly in membership, a chapter of Royal Arch Masons has just been instituted here and the lodge is now planning to help in the execution of the plan for the erection of the large and handsome new Masonic Temple and Opera House that will be built in Earlington this year at a cost of some seven thousand dollars. The proceeds of the big picnic on June 23 will be devoted to the building fund for the new temple and all Masons within a rope's length will be invited to participate in a day of outing at our delightful park and lake, planned and given with no thought and in view of the future.

The committee on publicity and promotion will send out some large and attractive poster announcements in a few days and all friends and fraters are requested to aid in giving publicity to information concerning this big celebration.

Gov. Bradley: "Yes."

could lay their tongues to. Even the other day, as I am told, there appeared in an Eastern paper a picture of that good man John S. Sweeney. There is a man who for more than thirty years has preached the word of his master over this State, a man of spotless character, a beloved minister of the Christian Church, and yet they have published his picture in a newspaper and charged that he was present at a crowd of men in which it was agreed that Senator Goebel should be murdered. I say that hell is not half hot enough for such people.

"But, my friends, I do not desire to detain you. There are others here to every one of us are entitled to be heard, but I want to say one thing, however, to the Republicans of Kentucky. If there be one of you who is desponding, hold up your head and be a man. In the vocabulary of words we fail. We will carry this State this fall by a majority of 30,000 and it will be counted. My friends, I want every man to go away from this convention with determination to do his duty by his party and by his country. Let every one of us go away from here feeling that it was good that we met here. Let us go away with renewed life and vigor and zeal to fight the battle of freedom. They can not beat us."

"Now, my friends, I thank you for your attention."

A voice: "We want you for Vice President." Gov. Bradley: Gentlemen, I am afraid that in your day and mine we will never live to see a Vice President come from south of the Ohio river. We will content ourselves, however, by voting for and electing a President north of the Ohio river, and while we can not expect to end in the damaged circle of holding the office of Vice President, we can at least be high prize in the rear ranks and fight the battles of our country. I thank you for your attention."

Judge Yost States His Position.

Judge W. H. Yost, after repeated calls, said:

"Mr. Chairman and Fellow Citizens of Kentucky: I scarcely know to what I am to ascribe this flattering call for me to address a gathering of the Republican party of this State. During the years that are behind me up to 1896 I have been an active, working, aggressive Democrat. But in 1896 I did some tall and lofty kicking at what the Democratic party proposed to force upon the nation. In 1897 I fought the organization again, but to none of these matters do I address. I address to you today, I ascribe it to the fact that I, as a citizen, of the State, having the interest of my people at heart, stood shoulder to shoulder with Gov. Taylor and the others who had been rightly and honestly elected to office by the voters of this State in the grandest fight for liberty that has ever been fought in the history of this land, and while I do not say now what my future course politically may be, I say to the Republicans of Kentucky with my hand upon my heart and with my eyes towards God who made me, so long as your fight is in favor of an honest election and a fair count and in favor of a fair trial in fair courts, I swear my allegiance to you and will stand with you shoulder to shoulder so long as the battle lasts. I will stand by you until morning, until a brighter and better dawn appears, and we can say that Kentucky is the home of the free and the land of the brave."

The Resolutions.

The resolutions referred largely to State issues. They were received with enthusiasm and adopted without dissent. The resolutions read as follows:

First—We endorse without reserve the administration of President McKinley and congratulate the country upon the redemption by him and by a Republican Congress of every pledge made in the Republican platform of 1896. We especially commend the wisdom shown by both the President and by Congress in dealing with the question of government in the new possessions of the United States and the enactment of legislation which opens up new and vast markets to American producers without taking a single dollar from the wages of the American workman.

Second—Through wise legislation the Republican party has rendered safe the monetary standard of this country and has always stood and now stands for money laws which benefit all of our people alike, producer as well as lender, and to this we favor carefully guarded and practical laws to secure elasticity in our bank currency, so as to provide for a constant supply of enough currency for all borrowers for business and for the general business interest, for the good of every worker, producer, farmer, manufacturer and business man and for the general business of our people.

Third—We favor proper legislation by the National Congress relating to the upbuilding of our merchant marine, so that the products of our country, our mines and forests may be carried in American-built, American-manned and American-owned ships and marvelous progress of our inland navigation may be equalled by commercial triumphs on the high seas.

Fourth—We instruct the delegates chosen by the convention to the Republican National convention to vote for the renomination of President McKinley and the unequivocal endorsement of his wise and patriotic administration of the affairs of the Government.

Fifth—Important as are these general policy, the Republican party in Kentucky is compelled to subordinate its other aims and purposes to the solemn duty of restoring the right of suffrage to the people of this Commonwealth. It unreservedly dedicates its organization and the undivided effort of its membership to the single and paramount cause of civil liberty and invites the co-operation and support of all persons who are thinking and cherishing citizens of all parties.

Sixth—We demand the unconditional repeal of the existing election law, under the operation of which individual citizens have been deprived the right to vote and whole counties have been deliberately disfranchised by authors of which certificates of election have been issued to men defeated at the polls, and as a disastrous result of which the government of the State has been placed in hopeless confusion and chaos.

Seventh—We denounce the course of the Democratic majority in the last General Assembly from the hour when it adopted rules in defiance of right and the Constitution, down to the first action by which it attempted to deprive Gov. Taylor and Lieut. Gov. Marshall of the high offices to which they had been elected at the polls.

Eighth—We indorse without reserve the results and patriotic course of Gov. William S. Taylor in resisting with all of the power at his command the usurpation of the office to which the people have elected him, and we pledge him our unfailing support in the restoration of the course until the Supreme Court of the United States shall have determined the result of the election. We no less emphatically endorse John Marshall and all of the other members of the Democratic majority who fought and propose to fight to the end for the preservation of government by the people.

Ninth—We thank the independent men of Kentucky who, regardless of former party affiliations, have united with us in this contest for the restoration of civil liberty, popular sovereignty and an untrammelled ballot, and ask their continued aid in full force, civil and political liberty will be restored, and thereafter the sovereignty of the people, as declared at the polls, shall be obeyed.

Tenth—We fully indorse the position of the National Convention of the National Congress by Senator Hobbs and Congressman Pugh and all other members of the Republican party in and out of Congress, and all important measures arising therefrom.

Eleventh—We make public recognition of the faithful, diligent and energetic service rendered by ex-Gov. Bradley and ex-Senator Sweeney in State and Federal Courts in the defense of our civil liberty, and ask their continued aid in full force, civil and political liberty will be restored, and thereafter the sovereignty of the people, as declared at the polls, shall be obeyed.

Twelfth—We request ex-Gov. Wm. O. Bradley to allow the Republicans of Kentucky to unite with him at the coming National Republican convention for the high position of Vice President of the United States.

JUSTICE HARLAN'S DISSENTING OPINION

Justice Harlan in his dissent from the majority opinion in the United States Supreme Court, deciding that the court had no jurisdiction in the Kentucky gubernatorial case quoted various authorities and said: "Notwithstanding these adjudications, the decision today is that this court has no jurisdiction to inquire whether the citizen has been deprived with out due process of law of an office held by him under the constitution and laws of his State.

the State. If, in a contest between the one holding the office and the person claiming to hold it, it is determinable by the Legislature in a prescribed mode, this court, it appears, cannot inquire whether that mode was pursued and cannot interfere for the protection of the incumbent even if the final action of the Legislature was confessedly capricious and arbitrary, inconsistent with the recognized principles that belong to due process of law and not based in any degree on the evidence taken in the contest.

"If the Kentucky Legislature had wholly disregarded the mode prescribed by the statutes of that State, and without appropriating a board of contest composed of its own members, had by joint resolution simply declared Goebel to be Governor, and especially if such action had been held by the highest court of the State to be conclusive, this court, as we are informed by the decision just rendered, would be without jurisdiction to protect the incumbent, for the reason as is now adjudged, that the office in dispute is not property within the meaning of the fourteenth amendment.

Q So that while you may inquire whether the citizen's land or his mules have been taken from him by the legislative, executive or judicial authorities of his State without due process of law, ousted one lawfully elected, and holding the office of Governor for a fixed term, with a salary which cannot be diminished during such term, and put into his place one whom the people have said should not exercise the authority appertaining to that high position.

"When the fourteenth amendment forbade any State from depriving any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law, I had supposed that the purpose was to guard citizens against being deprived of any legal right in violation of the fundamental guarantees that inhere in due process of law."

Re-union Notes.

Kentucky veterans are taking a great interest in the Confederate Re-union in Louisville, May 30, June 1. General J. B. Briggs, commanding the Second Division, will have 700 men in uniform there.

Captain W. J. Stone, of Kuttawa, Ky., says that his old command, the Fifth Kentucky Cavalry, will be well represented and will probably be one of the many to have a "re-union" of their own at the grand Re-union of the United Confederate Veterans at Louisville, May 30, June 1.

Gen. John B. Gordon, of Georgia, Commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans Association, believes that the Confederate Re-union held in Louisville in May will be by far the largest and most successful ever held. "The central location of the city," says the general, "will bring thousands of Confederates to the gathering who have heretofore not attended the annual meetings. From what I understand, no other city has ever made the preparations that Louisville is making to welcome the veterans. I am satisfied that not less than 25,000 will be here, then with 25,000 more visitors, including families, kinsmen and friends of the veterans, I think it safe to say that Louisville can expect to entertain 50,000 visitors."

All Confederate soldiers not able to board themselves, will be furnished everything free at the Louisville Re-union, May 30, 31, June 1, 2, 3.

One of the unique features of the Confederate Re-union at Louisville, May 30, June 1, will be a detachment of fifty Cherokee Indians, who served under General George H. Thomas. They are now living in North Carolina and will come with the veterans from that State.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

Becomes Their Ideal of a President After His Death.

A cartoon in a Democratic paper represents President McKinley helping to push a statue of Lincoln from its pedestal. It is a pity that Abraham Lincoln could not have known during his life that the storm of Democratic bitterness and abuse directed against him was superficial and to be regarded as merely a latent form of admiration with that remarkable party. It would be unkind to reproduce the Democratic epithets hurled at the great year president, the Democratic insistence that he was a failure and the ocean of Democratic writing intended to discourage him and defeat his plans. Lincoln died at his post without supposing that the time would come when the Democratic party, which assailed him from alive with every conceivable kind of opposition, and never acknowledged that he was right in anything, would attempt to borrow his name to cover its purposes. Lincoln never changed. He died as he had lived, the target of Democratic slander, hatred and obstruction. But the Democratic party seems to have changed, or at least to have changed its estimate of his character and deeds.

President McKinley may, therefore, pursue the even tenor of his way, so far as Democratic encoiums are concerned. Forty or fifty years hence the Democratic party may claim that they are following his footsteps and preserving his precedents. They may even start a branch of the Democratic party to be called "McKinley Republicans," and to meet as a side show to a Democratic national convention. But in carrying forward human affairs it is said that the Democrats are always a generation too late. To set a man with hard words and self pitfalls in his path, while alive, and canonize him a third of a century after his death is not in accordance with the soundest quality of reason or the finest impulses of the heart. A few drops of the dew of appreciation should fall elsewhere than on the moss-grown monument of a patriot and statesman. But then the Democratic party is a law unto itself. There is nothing else just like it. A contemporary poet seems to have had its epithet in mind when he wrote:

The lightning bug is brilliant,
But it hasn't any mind;
It stumbles through existence
With its headlight on behind.

CURES WHERE ALL OTHERS HAVE FAILED.

JAMES E. BALLARD, Sole Proprietor. - - 310 North Main Street, ST. LOUIS, MO.

The matron of a well known Masonic Home mentions one inmate, seventy years of age, who has been in the infirmary for three years, a great sufferer from indigestion, and has been taking Ripans Tablets about a year and a half and finds them so beneficial that he is never without them. He is willing that his name should be used in a testimonial, as it might be of use in persuading some other person to try them. A second old gentleman, in the same institution, eighty-four years of age, has had liver trouble for -many years and finds that R-I-P-A-N-S help him very much. They also have two nurses there, one thirty years of age, the other forty-two; both suffer from indigestion, causing headache, depression of spirits and nervousness. They take the Tablets and find them so useful that they always have a package in their pockets. The matron also states that she is forty-five years of age and at times suffers with indigestion, causing pain and paroxysms of belching, and finds that the Tablets are very good indeed and is perfectly willing to have her name used in a testimonial.

WANTED—A case of bad health that R-I-P-A-N-S will not benefit. They banish pain and prolong life. Give relief. Note the word R-I-P-A-N-S on the package and accept no substitute. R-I-P-A-N-S, 10 for 5 cents. Twelve packets for 45 cents, may be had at any drug store. Ten samples and one thousand testimonials will be mailed to any address for 5 cents, forwarded to the Higgins Chemical Co., No. 10 Spruce St., New York.
